

9. Determining the EL Performance Measure for a student: a step-by-step example

In this example, a high-school student

- › does not have a parental denial for the placement in any special language program, is classified as

